Instructions for Time-Limited Exemptions

- Employers must direct employees to work from home as far as reasonably practicable.
Approval obtained from this exemption will not exempt entities from adhering to the Covid-19 (Temporary Measures) Act. Employers may face stop-work orders or other penalties for not directing staff to work from home where possible or not implementing safe distancing measures at work.
- Entities that are able to continue to operate their business (in limited or full capacity) with their employees working from home should continue to do so and need not apply.
- Given the above, you should only submit this form if you would like to activate a small number of employees to work at the business premises and/or designated locations for short periods of time (i.e. less than a day). The total number of employees activated should NOT exceed 10, or 25% of the total number of employees in your company, whichever is lower.
- With effect from 26 Apr 2020, every company is limited to a total of 2 applications every week (the weekly cycle starts from Sunday 12.00am to Saturday 11.59pm), for the remaining duration of the circuit breaker. Example: You will need to submit your Time-Limited Exemption application on Sundays, for on-site deployment of your staff on Mondays.
- You are required to obtain prior approval before you submit your application:
 - If you are from the Construction sector and are requesting to continue with physical/actual building works on the construction site, you are required to obtain an approval from the Building and Construction Authority first before you can proceed.
 - If you intend to conduct in-person training for Continuing Education and Training (CET) courses, you are required to obtain an approval from SkillsFuture Singapore before you can proceed.
- You do not need to submit a Time-Limited Exemption, if you are:
 - a business owner wanting to visit your own business premise alone (i.e. not activating any employees).
 - providing healthcare services (including chiropractors, TCM practitioners), please make an application under General Exemption at <https://covid.gobusiness.gov.sg> and wait for an approval before you proceed.
 - a company, variable capital company, bonds, unit trust or business trust listed on the Singapore Exchange, and seeking to hold a General Meeting, your Time-Limited Exemption application would be automatically approved, subject to compliance with the requirements in SGX's Advisory on the conduct of General Meetings, at <https://go.gov.sg/generalmeeting>.
