Instructions for Time-Limited Exemptions

- Employers must direct employees to work from home as far as reasonably practicable. Approval obtained from this exemption will not exempt entities from adhering to the Covid-19 (Temporary Measures) Act. Employers may face stop-work orders or other penalties for not directing staff to work from home where possible or not implementing safe distancing measures at work.
- Entities that are able to continue to operate their business (in limited or full capacity) with their employees working from home should continue to do so and need not apply.
- Given the above, you should only submit this form if you would like to activate a small number of employees to work at the business premises and/or designated locations for short periods of time (i.e. less than a day). Companies using the Time-Limited Exemption are not required to submit manpower details but have to ensure that the total number of employees activated should NOT exceed 10, or 25% of the total number of employees in your company, whichever is lower.
- With effect from 26 Apr 2020, every company is limited to a total of 2 applications every week (the weekly cycle starts from Sunday 12.00am to Saturday 11.59pm).
- You are required to obtain prior approval before you submit your application:
 - from the Building and Construction Authority, if you are from the Construction sector and are requesting to continue with physical/actual building works on the construction site.
 - from SkillsFuture Singapore, if you intend to conduct in-person training for Continuing Education and Training (CET) courses.
- You do not need to submit a Time-Limited Exemption, if you are:
 - a business owner wanting to visit your own business premise alone (i.e. not activating any employees).
 - providing healthcare services (including chiropractors, TCM practitioners), as you should submit a General Exemption application and wait for an approval before you proceed.
- Please note that:
 - If you are a company, variable capital company, debentures, unit trust or business trust listed on the Singapore Exchange, and seeking to hold a General Meeting, your Time-Limited Exemption application would be automatically approved, subject to compliance with the requirements in SGX's Advisory on the conduct of General Meetings, at <https://go.gov.sg/generalmeeting>.
 - Your business is also not allowed to conduct any transactions with or provide services to any individuals for any events related to marriages, weddings and solemnizations, regardless of location of the event during the period of the Time-Limited Exemption.
